

SCREEN QUEENS, PART 2 « PINQ.CA – Vancouver’s guide to fabulous food, fashion and fun.

SCREEN QUEENS, PART 2

Who needs Netflix with more top picks from the queer film fest?

On Monday, we gave you the first in our series of flicks to favour at this year’s Vancouver Queer Film Festival.

Here are some more winners to check out this week when the fest opens tomorrow:

SUMMERTIME \(La Belle Saison\) | Opening Gala Thu., Aug 11, 7pm at Vancouver Playhouse and Wed Aug 17, 6:30pm at International Village

Romance between two young women set between the turbulent political climate of 1970s Paris and the quiet countryside of the provinces.

MILES | Sat., Aug 13, 9pm and Thu., Aug 18, 9pm at International Village (pictured)

SNL alumna Molly Shannon co-stars in this '90s coming-of-age comedy about a boy who joins the girl’s volleyball team in hopes of a scholarship to get him to film school the big city of Chicago. Director Nathan Adloff will be appearing at both screenings for a Q&A.

SOUTHWEST OF SALEM | Mon., Aug 15, 8:45pm at International Village and Tue., Aug 16, 7pm at Vancity Theatre

Legal documentary that traces the 1994-1998 trials of four lesbians charged with sexual assault at the height of the United States’ Satanic worship panic with eerie parallels to the more famous West Memphis Three.

August 10, 2016