Get meta with ‘Strike A Pose,’ the behind-the-scenes doc behind Madonna’s ‘Truth or Dare.’

It been 25 years since Madonna kickstarted the reality TV boom with her backstage documentary Truth or Dare.

Arguably, just as important to the film as Madge herself were her seven backup dancers and their on-screen portrayals.

Part of the Vancouver Queer Film Festival, Strike a Pose follows the lives of those seven men after the cameras stopped rolling.

Celebrating the mid-point of the fest, tomorrow night’s Centrepiece Gala screening will of Strike a Pose will be hosted by original Blonde Ambition Tour dancers Jose Gutierrez Xtravaganza and Kevin Stea (pictured).

Jose will also teach a free Vogue-ing workshop on Thursday night at 10:30pm at The Alexander Gastown (91 Powell St.) as part of the Black Lives Matter Dance Party.

CENTREPOINT GALA: STRIKE A POSE

Tomorrow at Vancouver Playhouse (600 Hamilton St.), 6:30pm.

$12 Rush Tickets at the door.
